PICK SIX

5 Wednesday marks the Aggies fifth nationally-televised game of the season and fourth straight in front of a nation audience.

1 James Jones enters the weekend ranked first among CUSA players and 19th in the nation in rushing yards per game, averaging 99.8 yards per game. He also ranks 20th nationally in yards per carry (6.5).

3 With three defensive touchdowns this season, NM State is one of just five programs with three or more defensive scores this year. They are joined by Alabama, Notre Dame, Texas Tech and North Dakota State.

15 The Aggie defense has tallied 15 total sacks this season. This mark is good for second among CUSA teams and 32nd in the nation. This is also just four sacks shy from equaling their total from 2025.

8.3 NM State's Nick Session enters Wednesday averaging 8.3 tackles per game to rank third in the conference. His 34 solo tackles is also second-most in CUSA and sixth-most in the nation.

4 Wednesday's matchup against the Bearkats will serve as just the fourth all-time meeting between the two programs. Entering the game, the Aggies hold a 2-1 record against Sam Houston.

SAM HOUSTON GAME WEEK - MEDIA SCHEDULE

Practice No Media Availability	Practice Weekly Press Conference - 1 p.m.	Travel Day No Media Availability	Game Day NM State at SHSU 6 p.m. MT Postgame Press Conference (Zoom)

LAST TIME OUT: FIU 22, NM STATE 3

NM State fell to FIU, 22-3, in Miami as three turnovers proved costly in the Aggies' lowest-scoring game of the season. After a 34-minute lightning delay, NM State managed its only points on a 26-yard field goal from Kyah Francone, while James Jones led the offense with 89 rushing yards and added three receptions. Defensively, the Aggies kept pressure on the Panthers throughout the night, highlighted by a career-high two sacks and three tackles for loss from Gabe Peterson, while Nick Session recorded a career-best 13 tackles.

BYE WEEK

After playing three games in a span of 12 days, the Aggies got some time off as they took advantage of a bye week that left them with 13 full days without a game.

SHORTEST ROAD TRIP OF THE YEAR

The Aggies will make the trip to Huntsville, Texas for their fourth road game of the year. After the first three road trips forced NM State to travel an average of 4,125 miles, this week's trip will span just 1,336 as they make the journey to East Texas. This will also mark the Aggies' shortest road trip of the 2026 campaign.

PRESSURING THE PASSER

Aggie defensive end Gabe Peterson has put together a strong first half of the season as he paces the Aggies and ranks second among all CUSA defenders with a career-best 4.5 sacks through just six games. This includes a standout performance against FIU, when Peterson recorded 2.0 sacks and 3.0 tackles for loss.

In the Aggies' CUSA opener against WKU, the Aggie defense recorded six total sacks to mark the program's most sacks in a single game since a seven-sack performance against FIU on Oct. 4, 2023.

NM State now sits at 15 sacks on the season to rank second among CUSA defenses and 32nd at the FBS level. The Aggies will look to keep this going on Wednesday as Sam Houston has allowed 17 sacks this year, marking the second-most allowed by any CUSA team this season.

In total, seven different Aggies have at least one sack this season, including five players with multiple sacks at the midway point of the season.

PASS THE ROCK

The Aggies will be facing off against one of the stingiest pass defenses in the country as Sam Houston enters the game allowing just 137.8 passing yards per game to rank fourth in the country. Thus far, only Texas Tech has eclipsed 200 yards passing against the Bearkats.

However, this has been a strength for the Aggie offense this season as they are averaging 230.5 passing yards per game and have gone over the 200-yard mark in four of their first six contests.

COMMON OPPONENT

The Aggies' opponent is coming off of a 16-3 home loss to Western Kentucky. This is the same WKU squad that the Aggies collected a 34-13 victory over in their CUSA opener.

STRONG START TO CUSA PLAY

The victory over WKU two weeks ago marked NM State's first-ever win in a Conference USA opener and moved the Aggies into a tie atop the league standings. Previously, the Aggies were 0-3 in CUSA openers, including a 2023 campaign that saw the Aggies reach the conference title game.

RESTRICTING THE RUSH

In the win over WKU on Oct. 1, the Aggie defense allowed just 46 total rushing yards to mark the third time this season that the Aggies have allowed fewer than 75 rushing yards. This marks the first time since at least 1994 that the Aggies have kept their opponents under 75 rushing yards three times in a single season.

Thus far, Aggie opponents are averaging just 3.5 yards per carry. The Aggies will look to keep this going against Sam Houston as the Bearkats have one of the worst rushing offenses in the country as they average just 95.0 yards per game to rank 133rd out of 138 teams.

WINNING AT HOME

In their last home contest, NM State collected its second home win of the season, improving to 2-1 at Aggie Memorial Stadium this year. This season, Conference USA teams have found major success on their home turf as they currently hold a record of 23-7 in home games. On the contrary, CUSA teams hold a record of 4-28 on the road.

TALLYING TURNOVERS

With an interception against FIU, the NM State defense has now forced a turnover in 21 of its last 22 games dating back to the 2024 season. During this stretch, the Aggies have recorded an interception in 16 of the 22 contests.

The Aggies will look to continue their strong defensive play against a Bearkat squad that has been outscored 51-6 in its first two CUSA contests.

GOING THE OTHER WAY

After finishing 14th in the nation in turnovers forced in 2025, the Aggie defense has continued to produce takeaways. Against WKU, De'Marcus Peters' pick-six marked his second touchdown of the season and the third for the Aggie defense this season. With this, NM State ranks tied for second in the country in defensive touchdowns and is one of just five FBS teams in the nation with three or more defensive touchdowns this year. It is joined by Alabama (4), Notre Dame (3), Texas Tech (3) and North Dakota State (3) as the best in the nation in this category.

JAMES JONES LEADS THE WAY

Against WKU on Oct. 1, James Jones rushed for 155 yards to set a new season high and record the most rushing yards by an Aggie in a game since Mike Washington rushed for 152 yards against WKU on Nov. 9, 2024. This performance also propelled him to earning CUSA Offensive Player of the Week honors for Week 5.

With 89 rushing yards in his last outing, Jones now sits just 81 rushing yards away from 2,000 yards for his NCAA career.

Through his first five games with NM State, Jones paces the Aggies with 599 rushing yards on 92 carries. With 99.8 rushing yards per game, Jones currently paces all Conference USA rushers and ranks 19th in the nation. His 599 total rushing yards also ranks 13th in the country while his 6.5 yards per carry also rank second among CUSA rushers and stands at 20th among all FBS players.

While there are still six games remaining on the schedule, it is worth noting that no Aggie has averaged over 100 rushing yards in a single season since 2015 when Larry Rose averaged a program record 137.6 yards per game.

In his last five games, Jones has totaled 568 rushing yards on 81 carries to average 113.6 yards per game and 7.0 yards per rush.

Jones is familiar with big days in the backfield as he went over the 100-yard mark six times last season as a member of Delaware State. Dating back to his time with the Hornets, Jones has rushed for 100-plus yards in six of his last 10 games. Across his collegiate career, Jones has rushed for 100-plus yards a total of 13 times, including four times at Garden City CC, six times at Delaware State and three times with the Aggies.

As a senior at Delaware State last season, Jones compiled 958 rushing yards on just 98 carries to post an average of 9.8 yards per carry and 87.1 yards per game.

WEEKDAY CUSA

Wednesday serves as the Aggies' third midweek contest of the season and is one of 18 nationally televised midweek Conference USA games.

Thus far, the Aggies hold a record of 7-5 in midweek CUSA games. This will mark the second time that the Aggies collide with Sam Houston during the midweek slate after also doing so last season.

LEADERS IN THE MIDDLE

NM State brought back two big pieces of its defense as both linebackers Sone Aupiu and Tory Gethers returned for the 2026 season.

Aupiu is in his fifth year with the program and fourth as a starter. In total, Aupiu has now made 42 starts to lead all Aggies and is coming off a 2025 campaign in which he ranked third on the team in total tackles with 68.

After a breakout season in 2025, Tory Gethers is alongside Aupiu once again. Gethers serves as the Aggies' leading tackler among returners after ranking second on the team with 88 total tackles, despite only starting eight games last year. Currently, Gethers ranks second on the team in tackles with 39, including a sack and three tackles for loss.

LIBMAN'S TWO-TOUCHDOWN DAY

Against New Mexico on Sept. 26, wide receiver Myles Libman found the end zone twice in the second half, recording his first touchdowns with the program. With the performance, he became the first Aggie since 2023 to have two receiving touchdowns in a single game. The last player to do so was Trent Hudson who hauled in two touchdowns in the 2023 Conference USA Championship game.

THOMAS' COMING OUT PARTY

Sophomore tight end Josiah Thomas has emerged as one of the Aggies' top receiving targets as he has now tallied 10 catches for 161 yards over the course of the last three games. He now has 237 receiving yards on the season and has already eclipsed his season total from last season when he amassed 228 receiving yards for Western Carolina.

MORE COWBELL

Against New Mexico on Sept. 26, a total of 25,024 fans were in attendance. This marked the highest recorded attendance for a game at Aggie Memorial Stadium since Nov. 16, 2019, when 25,804 fans were on hand to watch the Aggies take on Incarnate Word.

SPREAD THE LOVE

Entering the sixth game of the year, a total of six different Aggies have caught passes for touchdowns this season as TK King (3), Myles Libman (2), AJ Williams III (1), Brodie Malone-Bradford (1), James Jones (1) and Terrione Graves (1) have all notched receiving touchdowns.

Similarly, a total of 16 different Aggies have caught at least one pass this season, including three different players with 10 or more receptions as King (20), Josiah Thomas (17) and Williams III (12) have each caught double-digit passes thus far.

THE AGGIES IN CUSA

The Aggies are now in their fourth year as members of Conference USA. NM State made quite the splash in its debut campaign - going 7-1 in league play on its way to an appearance in the CUSA Championship Game in addition to being one of only 27 FBS programs to reach the 10-win mark in 2023. NM State has now won 12 games across its first four seasons in the new league and will continue conference play this Wednesday against Sam Houston.

CLASS IS IN SESSION

One of the biggest plays in the Aggies' win over Mercyhurst came from safety Nick Session who intercepted a pass on the first play of the game and returned it 26 yards for a touchdown.

Prior to his interception in the season opener, Session had just one interception in his collegiate career with his first coming as a member of the Oklahoma State defense in 2021.

Session has also been flying around on the back end this season as he is coming off a career-high 13 tackles against FIU and currently leads the Aggies in total tackles with 50, including 25 solo tackles. With his total, he is just 11 tackles away from matching his season total from last year.

OLD STOMPING GROUNDS

NM State features several players and coaches which have direct ties to its opponent this week. Defensive Coordinator Joe Morris, Special Teams Coordinator and Linebackers Coach Jared Hensley and Defensive Line Coach Siddiq Haynes each spent time on staff at Sam Houston. Additionally, a total of five Aggies call the city of Houston home as TK King, Brodie Malone-Bradford, Obinna Okeke, Drake Williams and Demanuel Brown all hail from H-Town.

YEAR THREE FOR TONY SANCHEZ

NM State is in its third season under the leadership of Head Coach Tony Sanchez. Last year, the Aggies tallied four wins, increasing their win total by one game from the 2024 campaign. This marks Sanchez's eighth season as a head coach at the FBS level after previously spending five seasons at the helm of the UNLV program (2015-19).

In total, Sanchez holds a career record of 29-61 and a record of 9-21 as the leader of the Crimson and White.

During Sanchez's tenure, the Aggies have seen 15 individuals earn all-conference honors, including a pair of First Team All-CUSA selections in 2025.

This year, the Aggies are seeking their third appearance in a bowl game in a five-year span - a feat that has never been done at NM State.

EMPHASIS ON EXPERIENCE

With 15,176 combined snaps in FBS competition entering the year, the Aggies' roster ranked fourth among CUSA teams in career FBS snaps played, sitting only behind Liberty (21,490), Kennesaw State (17,153) and Western Kentucky (15,607).

Additionally, with 215 combined FBS starts prior to the start of the season, NM State ranked second among CUSA programs with only Liberty (279) having more combined starts.

KING OF THE GRIDIRON

After recording 41 catches for 588 yards to introduce himself to Aggie fans in 2025, TK King is off to a strong start to his final collegiate season.

Through six games in 2026, King paces all Aggie wideouts in receptions (20), receiving yards (286) and receiving touchdowns (3).

Across two seasons with the Aggies, King has eclipsed 50 yards receiving eight times in 13 contests, including going over 100 yards twice. With his performance earlier in the year against New Mexico, King also eclipsed the 1,000 yard mark for his collegiate career and now sits at 1,116 career receiving yards.

Offensive Coordinator David Yost will continue to look to utilize King to take the top off of the defense as the Houston native brings elite speed with him from the track to the football field. As a junior in high school, TK King ran a 10.21 in the 100-meter dash and placed third in the 200-meter dash at the 2021 Texas 6A state meet with a time of 20.74 seconds.

CUSA PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

Several Aggies have already produced standout performances this season as NM State has garnered a total of six Conference USA Player of the Week awards.

This includes recognition for James Jones (offense), Trey Hedden (offense), Gabe Peterson (defense), Nick Session (defense), Ma'Kyi Lee (offensive lineman) and Carson Su'esu'e (freshman).

BRODIE ON THE BIG STAGE

Wide receiver Brodie Malone-Bradford made his name known in the season opener at Doak Campbell Stadium. The sophomore from Houston finished the night with six catches for a team-high 96 yards and one touchdown against Florida State. With this performance, Malone-Bradford logged new career highs in receptions and receiving yards.

DYNAMIC DUO

Against ACC foe Florida State, the duo of Brodie Malone-Bradford and TK King combined to record 174 receiving yards. This marked the most by any receiving duo during Week 0 action. Additionally, King and Malone-Bradford were the only pair of teammates to each finish with 75 or more receiving yards during the first slate of college football games.

NEW FACES ON THE FIELD
In the Aggies' season opener, a total of 27 Aggies made their debut with the program, including nine starters as James Jones, Trey Hedden, Myles Libman, Luke Moise, Tyler Keinath, James Williams, Armond Owens, De'Marcus Peters and Kaian Roberts-Day all took the field in Crimson and White for the first time.

RETAINING THE ROSTER
For the first time since the transfer portal was introduced, the spring portal window no longer exists. For Head Coach Tony Sanchez and the Aggies, this could prove to be a difference maker.

This season, 92 of the 105 on the Aggies' roster were with the program during the spring. Last year, the Aggies lost 18 players to the transfer portal following the spring semester in 2025. This included seven starters - one of which was running back Seth McGowan who landed at Kentucky before becoming a seventh-round NFL Draft pick by the Indianapolis Colts. Additionally, by the end of the 2025 season, only one of the Aggies' starting offensive linemen was with the program during the spring.

MAKING THE SWITCH
A pair of notable Aggies began their careers on the opposite side of the ball. Defensive tackle Kaian Roberts-Day first started his career as a running back and tight end at Baylor. Coming out of high school, Roberts-Day was rated a four-star prospect by 247Sports and ESPN and was named the No. 6 tight end prospect in the country according to ESPN. Roberts-Day made the switch to the defensive line while still at Baylor. He then played one season at UTSA before transferring to NM State this offseason.

On the other side of the ball, running back Jalen Brown enters his fourth season with the Aggie program, but will be playing offense for the first time. Across his first three years in Las Cruces, Brown appeared in 11 games, made seven tackles and recovered a fumble against New Mexico last season. In high school, Brown starred on both sides of the ball at Glenbard South High School in Chicago. As a senior, Brown ran for 1,418 yards and 18 touchdowns while averaging 157.6 rushing yards per game.

Lastly, Xavier Rucker also recently made the switch to the other side of the ball as the running back now suits up as a safety for Joe Morris' defense after spending the first four weeks of his freshman campaign as a running back.

YEAR TWO WITH YOST
While the Aggies brought in a new quarterback, NM State does enter its second season with Offensive Coordinator David Yost on the headset.

Yost boasts more than 30 years of experience, including stints in well-respected conferences such as the SEC, Big 12, Pac-12 and Mid-American. He maintains a reputation of being one of the top quarterback developers in college football and has helped the growth of several NFL-bound passers, including Justin Herbert (Oregon), Jordan Love (Utah State), Blaine Gabbert (Missouri) and Chase Daniel (Missouri).

CLOSE CALLS
Finishing games was an emphasis for Head Coach Tony Sanchez this offseason after he saw his squad come up short in four games that came down to the wire. In 2025, the Aggies fell twice in overtime games and twice missed potential game-tying field goals in the final minute of play.

In total, the Aggies played in six one-score games, but only emerged victorious twice. This marked the most games decided by eight or fewer points in one season since 2017, when the Aggies played in seven one-score games.

Thus far, the Aggies have yet to play in a single one-score game during the 2026 season.

COACHING STAFF CONTINUITY
Once again, NM State enters the season with continuity on its staff as nine full-time coaches return for the 2026 season. Only Siddiq Haynes (Defensive Line) and Jamie Christian (Running Backs) enter their first season with the program.

FREQUENT FLYER MILES
This season, the Aggies will be near the top of the nation in movies downloaded as they are set to take on a schedule which includes trips to Tallahassee, Honolulu and Miami. According to CFBMap.com, the Aggies' schedule features the seventh most travel miles among all FBS programs. In total, the Aggies are slated to travel a total of 17,763 miles to rank behind only Hawaii, Stanford, Sacramento State, North Dakota State, Arizona State and California.

AGGIE ADDITIONS
In the offseason, the Aggies brought in a total of 49 newcomers, including 33 transfers with 11 coming from the FBS level. Some of the notable newcomers include quarterback Trey Hedden (Furman), running backs TJ Washington Jr. (Iowa) and James Jones (Delaware State), wide receivers Myles Libman (Stanford) and Lyndon Ravare (Kennesaw State), safety Tayden Barnes (Cincinnati), cornerback De'Marcus Peters (Texas A&M-Kingsville) and defensive lineman Kaian Roberts-Day (UTSA) among others.

AGGIE THROUGH AND THROUGH
From student-athlete to head ball coach, Tony Sanchez has had crimson running through his veins since the day he transferred to NM State as a player. Now, Sanchez is one of just 15 coaches at the FBS level currently serving as the head coach at his alma mater.

Following two seasons at Laney College in Oakland, Calif., Sanchez began his Aggie playing career in 1994. During his time, Sanchez made 54 catches for 741 yards and five touchdowns to help the Aggies win seven games. His career was highlighted by a senior season in which he tallied 42 catches for 576 yards and four touchdowns.

Sanchez collected his first win as the Aggies' head coach on Aug. 31, 2024, when NM State defeated SEMO 23-16.

THE JOE FIELDS ERA
On September 29, 2025, New Mexico State University announced the hiring of Joe Fields as the institution's 24th Director of Athletics. Prior to being named the AD at NM State, Fields spent one year at Tulsa. His time in collegiate athletics also includes stops at his alma mater, Syracuse, as well as Texas A&M. Fields also competed as a student-athlete himself, playing safety at Syracuse (2004-07), where he earned All-Big East Conference honors. He also spent one year in the NFL with the Carolina Panthers.

WHERE ARE THEY FROM
This year's Aggie roster is made up of 105 players from 23 states and three countries. The largest percentage of the roster hails from Texas, with 25 Aggies coming from the Lone Star State, narrowly edging out a group of 24 from California. Additionally, 13 players are from Arizona and nine are from the Aggies' home state of New Mexico.

In addition to the United States, the NM State roster also features one player each from Australia and Canada.

TEAM CAPTAINS
Ahead of the season, NM State held a team vote to select its team captains for the 2026 campaign. This year, the Aggie captains are made up of three offensive players and three defensive players.

On the offensive side of the ball, the Aggies are led by quarterback Trey Hedden, offensive lineman Tyler Keinath and wide receiver TK King. Defensively, linebacker Sone Aupiu, safety Nick Session and defensive lineman Henry Davis III will also serve as team captains.

HISPANIC HEAD COACHES
The Aggies' leader, Tony Sanchez, is one of just five Hispanic head coaches at the FBS level. Sanchez, a second-generation American of Puerto Rican and English descent, is also joined in this group by Baylor's Dave Aranda, Miami's Mario Cristobal, Duke's Manny Diaz and West Virginia's Rich Rodriguez.

Additionally, Sanchez is the first NM State head coach of Hispanic descent. Sanchez leads the Aggie program, which is based in Las Cruces, a city with a Hispanic population of more than 60%.

WHERE TO WATCH THE AGGIES
After just three of the Aggies' 12 games were featured on national networks in 2025, the Aggies will find themselves in the national spotlight six times this season. This year, NM State is slated to play three games on ESPN2, two games on CBS Sports Network and one game on The CW.

Week 8 marks the fifth time this season that the Aggies will play on national television as Jorge Sedano (PxP), Rodney McLeod (Analyst) and Kendra Douglas (Sidelines) will be on the call for ESPN2.

WHERE TO LISTEN TO THE AGGIES
Once again, all games this season will air live on 99.5 FM KXPZ for those in Las Cruces and the surrounding areas. Radio broadcasts for all Aggie games will also be available to listen to nationwide via the TuneIn App. Radio play-by-play for Wednesday's game will be provided by MJ Newsom, with analysis provided by Cory Lucas.

Additionally, all home games will be available in Spanish on 96.7 FM La Equis with the call provided by Darien Salayandia (play-by-play) and Jose Aragon (analyst).

On Saturday, Dec. 23, 2023, Sanchez was named the 36th head coach of the NM State program after serving as the Aggies wide receivers coach for two seasons. This is the second time that Sanchez undertakes the role of head coach of an FBS program after being at the helm of the UNLV program.

In 2025, Sanchez concluded his second season leading the Aggie squad and guided the team to a 4-8 record, improving on their win total by one from his first season.

After opening the season with wins over Bryant and Tulsa, the Aggies later earned a commanding win over Sam Houston and a victory over rival UTEP in a thrilling contest that came down to the final possession of the game.

Following the conclusion of the season, four Aggies garnered All-CUSA honors as tight end Gavin Harris and defensive lineman Ezra Christensen earned first team recognition, while wideout Donovan Faupel and safety Naeten Mitchell collected second team selections. Christensen also went on to be named a PFSN First Team All-American to become the first Aggie since 2018 to earn all-American honors from any publication.

In his first year, the Aggies finished 3-9, including going 2-6 in Conference USA play. Sanchez guided the Aggies to a season-opening win over SEMO, which marked the program's first season-opening victory since 2014. Additionally, Sanchez's first victory at his alma mater made him the first Aggie head coach since 1978 to secure a win in his debut with the program.

Year one also included a double overtime home win over LA Tech and a road victory over Middle Tennessee. In 2024, the Aggie offense finished the averaging 180.0 rushing yards per game to rank third in the league and 40th in the country.

During Sanchez's first season, the Aggies saw 11 individuals earn all-conference honors, including Second Team All-CUSA selections Seth McGowan (RB), Mike Washington (RB), AJ Vaipulu (OL), Tyler Martinez (LB), Abraham Montaño (K) and George Eberle (P).

With Sanchez leading the Aggie wideout group, the NM State receivers compiled over 4,000 receiving yards, including hauling in 31 of the Aggies' 46 receiving touchdowns during the 2022 and 2023 seasons. Following an appearance in the Isleta New Mexico Bowl, the Aggie passing attack ranked 20th in the nation in passing yards per completion (13.64) and was tied for 17th in the country in passing touchdowns.

Sanchez initially returned to the Land of Enchantment following a 2021 campaign in which he, Kill and a multitude of other member of the Aggies' coaching staff were at TCU in Fort Worth, Texas. There, Sanchez was an offensive analyst for the Horned Frogs and helped them pick up one victory over a nationally-ranked foe (#12 Baylor) through the team's 2021 campaign.

Prior to his time at TCU, Sanchez had a five-year run (2015-19) as the head coach at Mountain West institution UNLV. In Las Vegas, Sanchez totaled 20 wins at the helm of UNLV while also taking part in numerous fundraising effort which led to the construction of the $34 million Fertitta Football Complex. Sanchez remains fifth all-time in wins in program history.

During his tenure with the Rebels, Sanchez found early success and was responsible for one of only 17 five-win seasons for UNLV at the FBS level while also becoming one of only two UNLV coaches to win three or more games in his first season at the helm since 1999.
Sanchez also helped the Rebels increase their win totals in each of his first three seasons at UNLV to mark the first time that the program improved in the win column for three consecutive seasons.

With a 23-17 victory over Nevada in his first year as the UNLV leader, Sanchez is one of only four head coaches in the history of the program to defeat the Rebel's rival in his debut campaign and became the first coach in program history to do so on the road. Sanchez is also one of only two UNLV head coaches since 1981 to defeat Nevada more than once.

It was Sanchez's high-level success rate at the prep level that turned the most heads and allowed him to secure a head coaching job at the FBS level. Upon exiting the borderland following the 2003 season, Sanchez was installed as the head coach at California High School in Ramon, Calif., and began an 11-year run as one of the nation's best high school head coaches.

From 2004-08, Sanchez amassed 35 wins as California High School's head coach. Finishing at or above the .500 mark in all but one campaign, Sanchez successfully transformed the Fighting Grizzlies from a less-than-mediocre program to one that was a power in the East Bay Athletic League. Sanchez's best team at CHS was the 2007 edition which went 11-2, claimed an East Bay Athletic League championship and made a run to the CIF North Coast Section Finals.

Taking notice of Sanchez's success in the Golden State, Bishop Gorman High School in Las Vegas, Nev., came calling and hired Sanchez as its head football coach prior to the start of the 2009 season. What followed over a span of six season was nothing short of complete and total domination by Sanchez and his troops.

Bishop Gorman piled up an 85-5 record during Sanchez's tenure which ran from 2009-14. Ranked as the top prep football program in the nation by such publications as USA Today and MaxPreps.com, Bishop Gorman never failed to capture the Nevada Interscholastic Activities Association (NIAA) 4A state title in each of Sanchez's six seasons at the helm of the program. In 2014, Sanchez was named the USA Today High School Football Coach of the Year.

Sanchez spent a total of four seasons on staff at Oñate High School (now Organ Mountain High School) in Las Cruces, N.M. A wide receivers coach at that prep institution in 1998, he moved over to defensive backs coach in 2001 and 2002 before being named the defensive coordinator for the 2003 season. Irvin High School in El Paso, Texas, also employed Sanchez as its wide receivers coach in 2000.
Through his two-year tenure in an NM State uniform, Sanchez racked up 54 receptions for 741 yards and five touchdowns. Upon the conclusion of his collegiate career in the 1995 season, Sanchez served as an undergraduate assistant coach for the Aggies for their 1996 campaign.

A 1998 graduate of NM State, Sanchez possesses a bachelor's degree in family and consumer science. Five years later (2003), he secured a master's degree in special education. He is the father of a daughter, Alyssa, and a son, Jason.
